Markha Valley Trek

Description

This 14-day itinerary is a perfect choice for experienced trekkers who are seeking a challenging and rewarding adventure in the Himalayas. The trek takes place in the beautiful Markha Valley region of Ladakh, India, and begins with an early morning arrival in Delhi and a flight to Leh. The first few days are dedicated to acclimatization and visiting local monasteries in Leh, which will help prepare you for the trek ahead. The trek itself is a multi-day journey through stunning mountain landscapes, with daily treks of varying distances. You will have the opportunity to explore the beautiful valley of Nimaling and hike towards the basecamp of Kangyatse. The trip concludes with a visit to the Hemis monastery and a drive back to Leh before returning to Delhi for your flight back home. This itinerary is perfect for those who are looking for a challenging and unforgettable trekking experience in the Himalayas.
